Sol Berliner Again In Trouble.

MANAGING FAKE FIGHTS

Wrecked in City of Columbia He Turns Up in Manila and Tries Many Devices.

Sol Berliner, of the ill-fated steamer City of Columbia fame, and the man who was mainly responsible for tying the old tub up in the Hawaiian admiralty courts, in 1898, and subsequently in Honolulu's "Rotten Row," has been heard from in Manila, where he is managing fake prizefights. Sol Berliner was the father of Rosa, a young girl who came to Honolulu with her father and mother, Russell Colgrove, Comedian "Jim" Post, May Ashiey, and other seedy members of a so-called dramatic company.

Berliner and Colgrove had many a fight over the girl while the vessel was enroute to Honolulu from Seattle, resulting in Colgrove being placed in irons until his arrival in port. Colgrove brought suit against the steamer for false imprisonment; Berliner sued the captain for assault; "Rosa" sued for a golden balm to soothe her wounded feelings; and finally Mrs. Berliner had her husband arrested for assault, and as long as they remained in Honolulu the newspapers were filled with their doings. "Rosa" appeared at the Orpheum with "Jim" Post, and for a while there was peace between Berliner and Colgrove. The City of Columbia sailed for Hongkong and went to the bottom when near the Island of Nihau.

Colgrove left town quietly on a transport and turned up in Manila in a few weeks, and blossomed out as a customs broker; two months later as vice president of the Manila Chamber of Commerce, and a projector of steamship lines to "run from Singapore to Manila, Honolulu, Portland and Seattle." The steamers' hulls are yet to be seen in Honolulu or any of the ports named.

The Berliners finally managed to scrape steamer fare together, and in time posters announcing "The initial appearance of Rosa, the celebrated American prima donna," were flashing on Manila's billboards. Sol Berliner appeared as manager and promoted several fictitious encounters, which the press characterized as fakes. The Manila American of a recent date has the following account of one of Sol's entertainments:

"The second slapping, cuffing and punching production of the Manila Athletic Club took place as scheduled at the Teatro Libertad last evening. Some said it was a fake, while others considered the evening's entertainment well worth the price of admission. To a man up a tree the authors of the prior statement were piqued on account of the brevity of the 'gos,' or were ungrateful losers in the betting ring. It is not always easy to determine the favorites, for a small man with good lungs and a ten dollar bill to bet, can make a lot of noise. However, it is probable that the favorites of the majority present, with the exception of the first bout, came off losers.

As on the previous exhibition of the club, Sol Berliner was everywhere present and painstaking in the performance of his arduous duties. In introducing the gladiators and announcing the bill for the evening, Mr. Berliner said: 'Ladies and gentlemen, I am glad to have the pleasure of meeting this large audience this evening. When I arranged these fights I arranged them on the square, and I wouldn't permit them to come off if I thought they weren't going to be on the square. When I gave these prizes I knew I was offering inducements which I must see fought for on the level. When I got up these matches, and when I talked with the various business men, I wished to promulgate the sport. I received every encouragement, because they knew I would pull the matches off on the square. Now gentlemen, I am going to name the referees. I know they are all right, yet if anyone objects to what I announce, I want them to say so to me. I propose to have these fights on the square,' concluded Mr. Berliner. There was but one round, in which a Twenty-first Infantry pugilist defeated his opponent, and the fight was brought to a sudden end.

ITCHING PILES.

From the Melbourne Age.
Ever have any irritation of the skin? There are many forms of it, any of them bad enough to tax your patience. Hemorrhoid, a plague of the night; no rest for the sufferer from that complaint. Eczema, too; hives don't sound dangerous, but they cause much misery to those unfortunate enough to be troubled with them. Doan's Ointment is "A wonder" for any such trouble. Any troublesome irritation of the skin can't resist its healing, soothing influence. Lots of Honolulu people know this now.

Mr. H. Ryall, of No. 11, Grosvenor St., South Yarra, is a very old resident of Melbourne. He states:

For some considerable time I have been a sufferer from that annoying complaint known as irritating piles. At times the irritation was very annoying, especially at night, and in the warm weather. I applied some of Doan's Ointment which I had obtained and I am pleased to say that it gave me the desired relief from this annoying disease.

Doan's Ointment is splendid in all diseases of the skin: Eczema, piles, hives, insect bites, sores, chilblains, etc. It is perfectly safe and very effective. Very frequently two or three boxes have made a complete cure of other cases that have not yielded to other remedies for years.

Doan's Ointment is sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

For sale—Second-hand typewriters, all makes, at Pacific Cycle Company, Fort street.

All Run Down No Appetite. Weak. Discouraged.

Warm climates always debilitate the nervous system. The digestion is slow, and the liver becomes sluggish. Impurities in the blood accumulate, and you go about downhearted and depressed. All this may be quickly changed with proper treatment. Mrs. C. Kennedy, of 26 Erskine St., North Melbourne, Victoria, sends us her photograph and this letter:

"I had lost my appetite, was very weak, and all run down. Nothing did me good, and I was discouraged. I then tried and it brought me right up to my usual health and strength. And I want to add a word here about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has cured me of such hard coughs and colds that I feel I could not do without it. For family remedies I rely on that word, 'Ayer's.'"

Keep your bowels in good condition with Ayer's Pills. Take just enough to produce one good free movement of the bowels daily.
